Fullmer Construction's tag line should read "We Make Miracles Happen!" From the day we began demolition of an existing 203,000 square foot space until the day we moved in ... 100 days. As leader of the project for Kawasaki there were days I had my doubts if we would be ready to move in. Repeatedly the Fullmer team assured me we would make it. The construction project came together like the fabled perfect storm; however, unlike the storm we had nothing but rainbows in the end. The Fullmer team is great to work with, and while finishing out the project, worked with us so we could conduct business in our new home. Thanks Fullmer!
